Welcome to the Global Watch Weekly Report

Bible scholars agree that sky, sea, and physical earth contain spiritual forces behind barriers or 'gates'. In the Book of Revelation, chapter nine and verse fourteen, we read of "the four angels which are bound in the great river Euphrates."

Likewise, in Job 26:5, the literal Hebrew translation says,

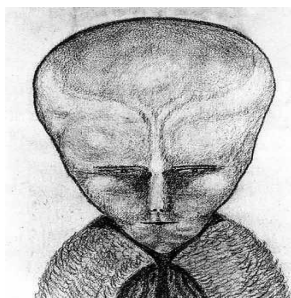

"The Rafa (fallen angels) are made to writhe from beneath the waters."

Additional biblical references indicate that the subsurface earth is a prison or holding tank where God has bound certain fallen entities. (2 Pet. 2:4; Jude 6) That such spirits might seek to move beyond their confines through human intervention or invitation, is defined in Scripture. The Hebrew people were warned not to communicate with spirits seeking to emerge from darkness (Deut. 18:11), and, as an example, when the witch of Endor communicated with the same, they ascended up from "out of the earth" (1 Sam. 28:13).

Based on such scriptures, it seems reasonable that an intelligent, functioning dynamic exists beyond or behind mythology, which according to Christian doctrine is identical with legions of fallen spiritual forces held within spiritual boundaries. It also appears that, by invitation, they can "ascend" or transcend these gateways, presenting themselves as 'light bearers' or angels of light (2 Cor. 11:14).

Some have wondered of "metaphysical" stargates where astral soul projection could occur while others have had questions about etheric energy alignments between points in interstellar space allowing vibrational energies to pass through distances of space along the space-time continuum

Since the beginning of time and on every continent of the world the record bears the frightening image of those who often come through:

In 1918, famed occultist Aleister Crowley attempted to create a dimensional vortex that would bridge the gap between the world of seen and unseen. The ritual was called the Amalantrah Working, and according to Crowley became successful when a presence manifested itself through the rift. He called the being "Lam" and drew a portrait of it. The startling image, detailed almost 90 years ago, bears powerful similarity with "Alien Greys" that we see in today's UFO pop culture.

A popular hypothesis sometimes called The Ancient Astronaut theory claims that super-intelligent beings have been visiting the earth through dimensional gates for eon. These are "the gods of mythology" and responsible for creating the human species. In the introduction to his bestselling book, Chariots of the Gods?, Erich von Daniken, who, it might be argued, is a father of the Ancient Astronaut theory, said:

"I claim that our forefathers received visits from the universe in the remote past, even though I do not yet know who these extra-terrestrial intelligences were or from which planet they came. I nevertheless proclaim that these "strangers" annihilated part of mankind existing at the time and produced a new, perhaps the first, homo sapiens."

As was illustrated in the Hollywood films Contact, and Close Encounters Of The Third Kind, von Daniken's premise took America by storm in the 1960's with the proposition that mankind was possibly the offspring of an ancient, perhaps ongoing, extra-terrestrial experiment.

Some accept this as an alternative to the Biblical account of creation. It's uncertain how many believe such a theory, but approximately eighty percent of Americans alone believe in the possibility of extra-terrestrial life. Some, like the 39 members of the Heaven's Gate cult that committed suicide in Rancho Santa Fe, California, and who believed they were being summoned by a UFO trailing the Hale-Bopp Comet, subscribe to an eerie amalgam of mysticism and conventional religion.

In ancient culture the Sumerians, Hebrews, Hittites, Babylonians, Assyrians, and others believed that gateways on earth symbolize celestial openings through which dark-influences and light-influences seek entry. It was therefore important to use imitative magic for protection against undesirable entities at homes and cities. Gateways (stargates) represented on earth in Assyrian archways were, for instance, built using elaborate construction ceremonies and blessed by names of good omens.

While smaller versions of protection-deities guarded individual home entries, colossal transgenic creatures flanked city gates and palace entries to keep undesirable forces from coming through those portals, important imitative magic thought to represent heavenly ideas, guardians that were often accompanied by winged spirits holding magic devices atop protective statuettes concealed beneath floors.

The apostle Paul used terminology in the Bible concerning forces of darkness and forces of light, which seek entry into individual homes as well as control over whole cities. The antidote against this evil influence, according to Paul, was the light of the Gospel of Christ. Descriptions of Christ's Gospel advent include the familiar language of the heavens opening--as in a gateway, doorway or window (see Mt. 3:16; Acts 7:56)--through which the light of the Spirit would come.

In more than thirty important biblical passages, the Greek New Testament refers to an invisible domain or "government" located in the space between heaven and earth--the kosmos. Archons command this geopolitical sphere according to the Bible, dominating kosmokrators (rulers of darkness who work in and through human political counterparts), who, in turn, command influences of lesser rank until every level of earthly government is touched by this power.

If we could see through the veil into the dimension of these beings, we might find the atmosphere alive with good against evil. Some say this is the place where the prize is the souls of men, and where legions war for control of its cities and people.

In this edition of the Global Watch Weekly we delve into the subject matter regarding gateways, portals and stargates and their past relevance both in politics and science.

THE PORTAL FACTOR

THE RAINBOW BRIDGE

The occultic plan of the New Age Movement is ultimately intended to collectively build what is called the "antahkarana", defined as a mystical "planetary rainbow bridge", created by the upward thrust of spiritual/mental energies from humanity at one end and the downward response of the Hierarchy at the other, which will eventually "unite Humanity and the Hierarchy".

This rainbow bridge is built by a "science of manipulating incoming energies and outgoing forces. Once it is completed, the bridge will be "electrified" or "energised", and will serve as the avenue by which the Hierarchy can carry on "full planetary inter-communication" in order for Sanat Kumara to direct world affairs."

As Barbara Marx Hubbard puts it, the completion of the Rainbow Bridge will mean the completion of planetary consciousness, in which all personal individuality will be surrendered. This kind of transformation will trigger a kind of "birth".

However, like the physical birth process, it's "dangerous, and there's nothing guaranteed"; it could lead to "a baby that kills the mother", in other words, "Armageddon" or it could result in a "normal collective mass consciousness baby".

But meanwhile, even progress towards its completion is believed to have an effect on human events. Hubbard implies that the Harmonic Convergence of 1987 made a great contribution toward the Bridge building, resulting in the collapse of Communism.

From Hubbard's point of view, the Bridge is being irrevocably pieced together, and its completion will be as irreversible as a birth.

But from a different source, we learn that the complete bridge may also materialize briefly in history, only to dissolve again.

Alice Bailey writes of a temporary formation of the Rainbow Bridge, and proudly points to an example of what happens when the "Shamballa" force has this kind of "unimpeded" access to humanity: "the planetary crisis" of "the World War (1914-1945) [sic]." That crisis was "beneficent" in several ways from a New Ager point of view, principally in that it flushed out "evil from its hidden place and brought the opposing forces challenging the Hierarchy to the surface of existence, prior to their 'sealing'."

From Bailey's, or Djwahl Kuhl's, other remarks, we can be sure that Hitler's Nazism was not the "evil" being referred to here. We are told that the "sealing" of evil is "still being carried slowly forward", as the "antahkarana" nears its final completion.

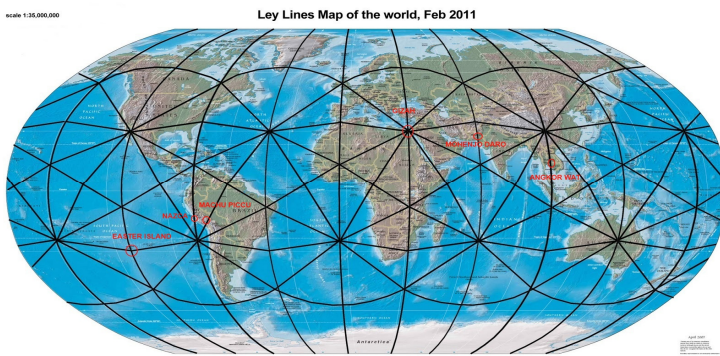

In technological terms the "rainbow bridge" is known as a star gate. Whilst a concept which has become the subject of a major movie and series, in the occult world star gates are based on the creation of physical architecture which provides the means for channelling the energy between two destinations.

THE PORTAL FACTOR

This is why many of the world's most incredible monuments are based on the structure of pyramids, octagons, obelisks and domes. These designs are the most powerful and efficient at channelling energy. The type of energy being channelled being dependant on the activities taking place within the structure.

Many of the worlds most incredible monumental structures are built on what is called "Ley Lines" or "Vortex Points" which are deemed by the occult to be strategic energy points on earth which hold significant levels of energy. Ley lines are alignments of ancient sites, holy places, and specific important locations such as stone circles, standing stones, vortices, and monuments.

Ley lines link a number of ancient landmarks by a series of straight lines. Ley lines are literally rivers of energy that flow through the earth and also between worlds and other universes. They are the veins and traffic arteries that make up the universal transportation system. They are found in places known as nexus points. Ley lines occur all over the world in a crystalline pattern based on a system of triangles and that great temples of the ancient world are built into this pattern at these nexus points all over the globe. Some of these places are:

- The Great Pyramid of Giza in Egypt
- Stonehenge in England
- The Bermuda Triangle - 3 Points
- Southern Japan's "Dragon's Triangle"
- Pyramids at Xian, China.
- Easter Island

A pattern of mysterious events around the world and across over time has caused researchers to search for reasons. This research led to the discovery of a map showing 12 equally spaced areas around the globe in which magnetic anomalies and other energy phenomena occur. (e.g Bermuda Triangle etc.) This map of these energy points and intersections described as "rivers of energy" was somehow lost to history or purposely taken out of circulation for many years.

According to occult sciences, when sacred key lines and architecture are synchronized then a "stargate" is created allowing doors to different dimensions to intersect and open up. Almost every structure owned by the global elite uses what is called sacred geometry, an occultic and supernatural mathematical system that was used to build the pyramids and which has been used to build some of the present day monuments.

One of the greatest monuments yet to be erected is the rebuilding of Solomon's Temple on the temple mount in Jerusalem. Whilst the standard perspective adopted by many bible prophecy teachers is that this temple will be rebuilt to coincide with the re-emergence of the levitical priesthood, from an occultic perspective the freemasons are also pushing for the temple to be rebuilt because the temple is a significant monument in their belief structure. In Mel Sanger's, "Holy War" it states.

"The traditions and romance of King Solomon's Temple are of great interest to everyone who reads the Bible. They are of transcendent importance to Masons. The Temple is the outstanding symbol in Masonry, and the legendary story of the building of the Temple is the fundamental basis of the Masonic rule and guide for conduct in life ... The cream of Masonic historical and philosophical writing has been drawn upon for his description of the Temple and its relation to Masonic ritual."

It needs to be understood that monuments and relics are of great importance because of the occult power. For instance what is the "Stone of Jacob" doing beneath the Queen Elizabeth's throne chair? Why was the Queen crowned at her coronation ceremony on top of a symbolic Egyptian step pyramid.

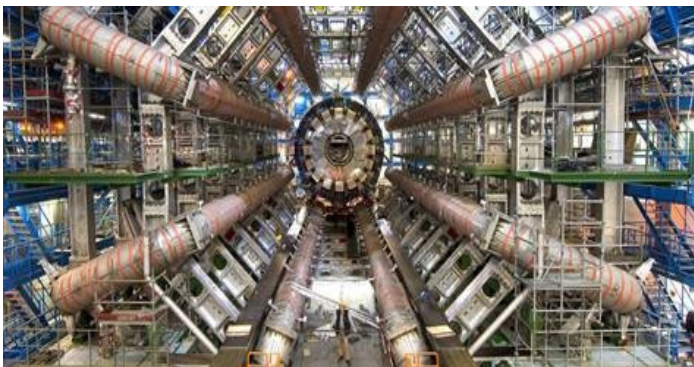

THE PORTAL FACTOR

THE STARGATE CONSPIRACY

A strange report began circulating in the Kremlin back in September 2008, stating that over 20 US Soldiers from the United States Army's 716th Military Police Battalion, 101st Airborne Division, tasked with providing security for the ancient Iraqi city of Babylon, and based in the Iraqi city of Hilla, had committed 'mass suicide' after their attempt to 'link' what was described as an ancient 'stargate' to the CERN's Large Hadron Collider which was one of the most controversial science experiments in human history, conducted in Switzerland.

The CERN's Large Hadron Collider (LHC) was reportedly being used as the 'power source' for this attempt to 'contact the gods' through this stargate.

In 2008 Scientists from around the world came together to launch the Large Hadron Collider, a particle accelerator in Switzerland, tasked with recreating the conditions of the Big Bang and answer some of the most fundamental questions of the universe.

In the lead up to this spectacle, concerns about the project from scientists and conspiracy-theorists alike intensified leading to lawsuits in American and European courts over last-ditch efforts to halt the project, and a flurry of threatening e-mails and telephone calls from worried members of the public who feared the massive machine could cause earthquakes and tsunamis that would destroy the world.

Located deep underground on the Swiss-French border, the Large Hadron Collider is a 27-kilometre-long circular tunnel in which high-energy beams of protons travelling in opposite directions were slammed into each other at energies up to seven times greater than any achieved before.

Needless to say the actual event did not endanger life on this planet. However there was an eerie connection to the stargate phenomena which has become a controversial aspect of the US occupation of Iraq. The mass suicide of US soldiers was also reported by Iran's Press TV News Service: Fars News Agency reported.

"Iraqi security sources have revealed that 21 US troops had committed suicide inside a former Iraqi air force base 27 days ago,"

According to the sources, the 21 troops were treated in a hospital but only five soldiers had survived and were in a critical condition. Security officials said they used potent narcotics to kill themselves. "The bodies of the US troops became misshapen[in] such a way that they looked like 5000-year mummies," said a witness."

It should be noted that Russian Intelligence Analysts have long reported Western Nations attempts to reestablish 'contact' with extraterrestrials.

Dr Michael Salla in his controversial article. "An Exopolitical Perspective on the Preemptive War against Iraq" made the following statements stated,

"An independent archaeologist that discusses a direct link between the ancient ET presence in Sumer (southern Iraq) and current US focus on the regime of Saddam Hussein, is William Henry. Henry's main thesis is that there existed in Sumerian times a technological device which he describes as a 'Stargate', that the Anunnaki/ Nephilim used to travel back and forth from their homeworld and the Earth, and also how they travel around the galaxy. If there is a Stargate existing in Southern Iraq that will play a role in such a 'prophesied return of the gods', then it is most likely that clandestine government organizations that greatly influence or control the Bush administration, are aware of the existence and the role of this Stargate. Iraq's President Hussein is most likely also aware of such a Stargate's existence as might be inferred by his architectural projects intent on reviving the grandeur of early Mesopotamian civilizations, and cementing his place as the restorer of Iraq's past glory."

Salla believes, that a Babylonian Stargate was also strongly implied by the previous Bush administration's penchant for secrecy and overturning many of the Freedom of Information initiatives from the earlier Clinton administration. Salla continues,

Control of the Stargate, in addition to any other Stargates that may have been established in the capitals of other civilizations, e.g., the Egyptian, Incan and Aztec; would presumably give clandestine government organizations greater leverage with ET races that are presently interacting with the planet, or are predicted to arrive on the scene in some event associated with the 'prophesied return of the gods'.

At the very least, control of the Sumerian Stargate would allow clandestine government organizations to dictate the pace of global transformations that ET races promise to introduce to the Earth with their advanced technology, superior knowledge and heightened psychic abilities.

Russian Military reports circulating in the Kremlin also stated that the entire $700 billion bailout package signed into law by President Bush before his departure had been put into the hands of one single man by the US Secretary of the Treasury Henry Paulson in one of the strangest moves yet committed by the United States in its managing of the total collapse of the World's entire financial structure back in 2008.

What made this move so strange is that the man that was tasked with saving the entire Western banking structure was an Indian-American named Neel Kashkari who at the time serving as the senior advisor to the US Treasury Secretary was better known in Russian Intelligence circles as an American aerospace engineer.

Neel Kashkari was known as the 'Stargate Commander of Area 51' as prior to his entering the higher echelons of the US financial structure, was one of NASA's top scientists who created, among other technological wonders, the James Webb Space Telescope (JWST) which is due to replace the failing Hubble.

However Mr. Kashkari, these reports state, was employed by the American defense conglomerate TRW Inc, which among its many government contracts includes its ultra secret projects at the Groom Lake, Nevada, otherwise known as Area 51. "Area 51", officially designated as an "operating location near Groom Lake, Nevada", is the nation's leading-edge aerospace research, development and testing complex, managed by the Air Force Flight Test Center Detachment 3 (AFFTC DET 3), headquartered at Edwards Air Force Base in Southern California.

These reports further state that Mr. Kashkari had just returned to the United States from Iraq where he was the lead investigator into the mass suicide of American troops attempting to 'open' what is described as a 'stargate' in the ancient Iraqi city of Babylon.

This task was particularly suited to Mr. Kashkari, these reports continue, due to his previous work with what is described as the 'ancient technology' currently being held by the United States at their Area 51 complex, and which has long been rumored to also hold the remains of aliens and their spacecrafts retrieved by the Americans over the past 60 years, and which earned him the Russian Intelligence codename of 'Stargate Commander'.

CERN, HINDUISM AND PORTALS

Another controversial situation concerning CERN took place 18th June 2004 at the 128th session of the CERN council, in which a 2m statue of the hindu dancing goddess Shiva was unveiled at CERN.

The special plaque next to the Shiva statue explains the significance of the metaphor of Shiva's cosmic dance with quotations from Capra:

"Hundreds of years ago, Indian artists created visual images of dancing Shivas in a beautiful series of bronzes. In our time, physicists have used the most advanced technology to portray the patterns of the cosmic dance. The metaphor of the cosmic dance thus unifies ancient mythology, religious art and modern physics."

What the plaque didn't mention was that Shiva is known as the god of destruction. The Council meeting closed with a ceremony to unveil the statue offered to CERN by the Government of India as a symbol of India's long-standing relationship with CERN.

Speaking at the unveiling ceremony, Dr Anil Kakodkar, Chairman of the Indian Atomic Energy Commission and Secretary to the Government of India, expressed his satisfaction that "the Indian scientific community is part of the quest for understanding the Universe".

India's involvement with CERN dates back to the early 1960s.

The use of Hinduism to symbolise CERN is of great importance since the occultic plan of the New Age Movement is based largely on eastern Hinduism in an irreversible connection between earth and the spiritual plane is a key concept. As previously mentioned, the occultic plan of the New Age Movement is ultimately intended to collectively build what is called the "antahkarana", defined as a mystical "planetary rainbow bridge", a spiritual definition of a technological stargate, created by the upward thrust of spiritual/mental energies from humanity at one end and the downward response of the Hierarchy at the other, which will eventually "unite Humanity and the Hierarchy".

There have been other projects aside from CERN which also relate to stargate technology. The Looking Glass Project involved a back-engineered extra-terrestrial device originally designed to be a portal opening mechanism for stargate type travel - which had (has) the capacity to bend time/space so that events over the forward and rear event horizons could be viewed. When it is paired up with a second device using the settings, events can not only be viewed but heard and more. This device was also being tested for communications protocols and transportation applications as recently as 2003-2004 before being dismantled for safety reasons.

INTERVIEW WITH MEL SANGER

Mel Sanger is the author of the “Antichrist Identity Series”, a series of special reports which have been read by hundreds of thousands of people globally and have provided a significant insight into some of the most controversial aspects of coming one world government. Sanger was also the founder of the Vision Report Watch, the forerunner of the now weekly Global Watch report.

Mel Sanger was interviewed in June 2010 by Daniel Bailey and much of the content is relevant for this edition of the Global Watch Weekly. So here is a partial transcript of the interview.

Daniel: Mel as you may be aware, our July coverage will be focused on the ongoing controversy regarding the American Intelligences cover up regarding the finding of a “stargate” in Iraq. What your thoughts on this?

Sanger: In some ways if this is true it would not surprise given the importance of Babylon from a prophetic perspective. I know Biblical Scholars tend to have a habit of disowning a specific interpretation should it not meet the political and economical horizon of their present vantage. Hence many scholars have interpreted Revelation 18 as reference to the United States, Europe or the Vatican. However the Old Testament prophecies were very clear that a literal rebuilding of Babylon is required so anything which happens today in modern day Iraq is clearly setting the scene for one of the most direct signs for the last days.

Daniel: Do you believe a stargate was the reason that the foreign policy of the United States was so focused on an invasion of Iraq regardless of the United Nation Security Council

Sanger: I am still myself reviewing the evidence for a stargate in Iraq as there tends to be a lot of misinformation and counter misinformation whenever something like this attracts publicity and it can be a painstaking process separating fact from fiction. I believe what had taken my interest is that some of the people voicing their support for such a view are some of the most respected academics and lecturers within the scientific and political field. Furthermore if you have read Wendy Alec’s fictional account called “Son of Perdition” there is one whole chapter devoted to fallen angels literally entering into the earth realm as men through a stargate tunnel between the abode of their dimension and earth. Where did Alec place their appearance onto earth. Shinar.

Daniel: Yes, we have made reference to Wendy Alec’s works in previous editions. It doesn’t surprise me that she would have placed such an event as happening in Shinar as I believe she also is aware of the stargate conspiracy.

Sanger: At this point the nature of a stargate, if it exists in Iraq would be still not clear. Is it a device that allows a human being to travel into a completely different dimension, is it a device that allows fallen angels to enter into our realm, or is it a device that allows for direct exchange of information, materials etc between different realms.

However what we do know from a biblical perspective is that there is a spiritual abode called the bottomless pit which is also referred to as hell; tartarus in Greek as well as “the deep” which in Greek is abassos or the abyss. We know there are specific fallen angels there based on Revelation 9, II Peter and Jude. However we know all fallen angels are not all there so it does denote some level of categorisation where some are imprisoned and some are not.

Daniel: As you know the belief of us here at Rema is that these imprisoned fallen angels were the ones whom were originally called the “Sons of God” in the old testament and are now masquerading as extra terrestrials in the present.

Sanger: There is no doubt that the extraterrestrial phenomena is a spiritual phenomena and not just some alien species evolution from another planet. Classical examination of alien abduction cases clearly shows there is deceptive and specific “anti biblical” message that is constantly being channelled through which is one which prominent writers like Zecharia Sitchin, and Erich

Von Daniken and others have been deceived. A belief system in which human beings are the product of a high ranked universal species known as annunaki. We all know this in conflict with the Genesis story of creation. The only being in the universe with the power to create life form is the God of the Bible. We know Satan can manipulate and alter life but he cannot create life and this marks a significant theological difference between Christian UFOlogists like Chuck Missler and IDE Thomas versus the likes of Sitchin and Von Daniken.

Daniel: No doubt about that!

Sanger: However I wouldn't say that the possible existence of a stargate is the only reason that the US wanted to invade Iraq.

Daniel: Interesting. What other reasons come to mind?

Sanger: One of the other key items to be followed are the plans to rebuild only the third Jewish temple in history on the present day temple mount in Jerusalem. Now what you and your members need to understand is that the British and American governments and many of the Western European governments are under Masonic control. Masonic lodges are the one's in Israel financing the excavation and archaeological efforts underneath the Temple Mount. Therefore considering the volatility of such a plan to the Islamic world the presence of the might of the West in the Middle East will always act as a deterrent to the Islamic World rising up in provocation.

Daniel: Hearing you say that reminds me of the fact that God is so vastly intelligent and superior to us that he can allow different strands of economic, political and religious events all to be interwoven with each other to facilitate a specific endpoint without us fully realizing it whilst the strands are being woven. Really awesome.

Sanger: That is why to me, the stargate issue is just one of another long line of strands rather than the one and only strand if you see where I am coming from.

Daniel: No I hear you loud and clear. So what is on the horizon for you this year.

I know many of our members have been asking if you are going to be releasing any new publications this year.

Sanger: There are a number of commitments I am working on for this year and one of them is "The infiltration of Christianity" which is due to be completed by Mid August.

Daniel: This is rather a different focus for you as I believe it's the first publication you have worked on which turns the lens on 'Christianity' itself rather than the secular world.

Sanger: Yes it was very important to understand how Christianity is also being impacted upon by the signs of the times. If you study the evolution of Christianity from the time of the Apostle Paul you will see evidence that Christianity has endured some incredible and significant attempts to undermine, thwart, destroy and infiltrate the Christian Faith. Some of the things that have happened to Christianity have actually become stumbling blocks to some. For example there are many who believe that Christianity is actually a pagan religion whose origins are tied up with the Egyptian mythology of Isis and Osiris. There are also some very deep wounds that still exist when trying to take the gospel to the Middle East. The barbaric crusades and barbarism shown by the Christian Crusaders when trying to convert new territories to Christianity during the medieval period. Furthermore there were some ecumenical councils that were heretic such as the Council of Trent. Sometimes the landscape can be disturbing if you study the history of Christianity.

However the ultimate thing to understand is that there is, has been and always will be a marked difference between the truth, and how truth is presented and so one needs to understand that if the presentation of the truth is in conflict with the truth, this is not an issue with the truth, but an issue with the presentation of the truth. So the main thrust of the report is to fully understand the incorrect presentations of the truth, especially those of modern times.
